

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

5602

(May 1988)

FRRAP's objective is to produce a periodic assessment of forest and rangeland conditions, identify causal factors and policy options for improving conditions, and coordinate and participate in inventory work relating to forest and rangeland where appropriate. FRAPP seeks to develop a data storage, retrieval, and analytical system for these resources and to do the following:

- Provide input for and comment on U.S. Forest Service Resources Planning Act (USF RPA), National Forest Management Act (NFMA), and Soil Conservation Service Resource Conservation Act (SCS RCA) processes.
- Develop and work toward implementing management-oriented projects useful to headquarters and field level personnel.
